BRIEF INFORMATION ABOUT:

The Diocese of Morogoro, Tanzania

Dear Father Roncase,

I am Rev. Rogatus Mpeka, a priest from the diocese of Morogoro, Tanzania. I write to brief you about the diocese of Morogoro and also to thank you for inviting me to your parish this weekend to make a mission appeal for the diocese of Morogoro, Tanzania.

The diocese of Morogoro is in great need to support the following pastoral projects:

1. For the past three years, the diocese has been facing acute shortage of food in the rural areas due to lack of enough rain and local priests and nuns serving in those affected poor rural parishes need diocesan help. About three quarter of the parishes in the diocese of Morogoro are located in poor rural areas where parishioners cannot afford monetary offerings for Masses.
In parishes where Sunday collections are received, the average collection in those parishes is approximately $36. Offering for regular Masses is $5; baptisms $9 and etc.

2. Funding is needed to support an orphanage facility run by the diocese. The orphanage facility needs some funds to maintain and care for about 290 orphan children whose ages range from 3 months to 17 years. The facility also cares for 50 lonely and homeless elderly people. Both the orphanage facility and elderly home are run by African native Nuns with the support from the diocese. The most items needed at the orphanage facility include: milk; food; shoes; clothing; medicine; blankets; mosquito nets; etc. The orphanage home also needs funds for education; health care of orphan children.

3. The diocese of Morogoro needs your support to fund its catechetical school, which educates catechists to serve in 68 parishes and 300 sub parishes in the diocese. This catechetical school is a vital facility in evangelization effort in the diocese. The school is the only facility where religious teachers in the diocese obtain necessary training for mission work. Because of a lack of facilities, this school is also being used as a retreat center. Funds are needed to purchase new books, improve the religious curriculum; acquire teaching equipment; renovate school buildings; student living dormitories; and pay teachers salaries.

I can be reached at 609.585.3482; address is: St. Vincent de Paul Church; 555 Allentown Road; Yardville, NJ. email: rogatus@msn.com.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Rev. Rogatus Mpeka

World Meeting of Families - 2015
Registration to volunteer is now open!

On the volunteer page of the World Meeting of Families, there are two volunteer portals; "General Volunteers" and "Deacons, Men & Women Religious". To register as a volunteer, one must complete a two-step process that includes completing an online user registration form and a background check request. Once these two steps are completed, registrants will receive a series of emails regarding eligibility. After you have successfully passed the background check (allow 48 hours) you will receive an email with a link to sign up for events. This link will take you to the Volunteer Hub where you will choose the days and time slots for which you would like to volunteer. Questions regarding registration can be sent to: volunteersupport@worldmeeting2015.org or speak with staff: 855.963.2015.

SUNDAY, JUNE 14, 2015  ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Be the seed, willing to grow

The life of El Salvador’s recently beatified Archbishop Oscar Romero provides evidence that one life, one humble seed, can become a giant shrub of faith. This unassuming but faithful man was willing to learn and to grow. It is slow work, this growing. But it is necessary to be part of the Kingdom. Be as faithful to the gospel as you know how to be and be open to the surprise of what God can do with one small seed. Place a seed packet on your table as a reminder of God’s invitation to grow in faith.

TODAY’S READINGS: Ezekiel 17:22-24; 2 Corinthians 5:6-10; Mark 4:26-34 (92).
“The seed sprouts and grows without his knowing how it happens.”

MONDAY, JUNE 15

Be fruitful

In the wake of Pentecost, the first disciples set out to spread the Good News in the world. The fire of the Holy Spirit burned within them, calling them to action. That same Spirit is in action in you today. Aside from the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit bestowed on you in the sacrament of Confirmation, the Spirit working within your life produces 12 distinct fruits: charity, generosity, joy, gentleness, peace, faithfulness, patience, modesty, kindness, self-control, goodness, and chastity. When you look at your life, can you see these fruits? How are you bearing these fruits in the world?

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 6:1-10; Matthew 5:38-42 (365). “Behold, now is a very acceptable time; behold now is the day of salvation.”

TUESDAY, JUNE 16

Claimed by God

“To know God, we must walk through life in love, love for our neighbor, love for those who hate us, love for all,” said Pope Francis in a 2015 Vatican radio address. He reminds us that God’s love has a claim on our actions. We’re called to express God’s love in concrete ways, doing so not only when it’s convenient or when it involves only the people who love us too. Pope Francis urges us to visibly reflect the expansive love of God to all people. How might our actions today express God’s love?

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 8:1-9; Matthew 5:43-48 (366). “I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you.”

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17

Give and receive

Almsgiving, donating to the poor and performing other acts of charity, is an obligation of Christians—a “witness to fraternal charity” and a “work of justice pleasing to God,” according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Pope Francis has called this concern for others “small yet concrete signs of our belonging to the one human family.” There is much to reap from charity sown, and everyone, including you, stands to benefit from the sharing of gifts. What individuals and organizations could use your time, talent, and things?
THURSDAY, JUNE 18

We are one body

We insist that our sins are private matters to be discussed with God. But the prayer that Jesus gave us reminds us that we are bound together by “our” Father, and what we do and fail to do impacts the lives of all who belong to the family of God. Our sins are not private. Rather, sin damages the bonds that unite humanity: Greed excludes, lies destroy, lust denigrates, and selfishness ignores the needs of others. The sacrament of Reconciliation helps us make amends with God and community as we name our sins aloud and celebrate God’s mercy and forgiveness.

TODAY’S READINGS: Corinthians 11:1-11; Matthew 6:7-15 (368). “Forgive us the wrong that we have done.”

FRIDAY, JUNE 19

FEAST OF ROMUALD, ABBOT

Life-changing moments

Though he ended up living an ascetic life and founding an order of hermit monks, Romuald started off as an aristocrat in Ravenna, Italy (c. 951), indulging in a life of pleasure and excess. When he was 20, however, he assisted his father at a duel in which his father killed a relative over a property dispute. The event profoundly shook Romuald and forever altered the course of his life, leading him to his monastic vocation. Think back on your life and see if you can recall an event that changed its course forever. Has it led or could it lead you to a deeper practice of your faith?

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 12:1-10; Matthew 6:24-34 (370). “My grace is sufficient for you.”

SATURDAY, JUNE 20

FEAST OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Saturdays with Mary

For centuries the church has held Saturday as a day dedicated to Mary. Though it is not certain how the tradition began, honoring Mary on Saturday has a deep history. The eighth-century Benedictine monk Saint Alcuin played a significant role in helping to establish this custom. He composed a number of formulas for devotional Masses with two Saturday “formularies” dedicated to Mary. The custom was popular and to this day, we remember Mary in various ways on Saturday from special gatherings to personal prayer to outreach to help others. How might Mary walk with you on this Saturday?

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 11:18, 21-30; Matthew 6:19-23 (369). “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth.”
