OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are the Catholic Parish Community of St. Philip Neri, answering Christ's call to discipleship through Word, Sacrament and Service. We proclaim God's hope and love to all.

LET US PRAISE CHRIST TOGETHER

In many Eastern European Countries, it is customary when Christians meet during Eastern Week, the common greeting is not the standard...hello, how are you, but, rather "Christ is risen". The response "Yes, truly He has risen". These spoken words or rather the Eastern greeting is a reminder of the hope and joy that Jesus brings into the lives of all believers. The Resurrection greeting reminds us with all the hardships, struggles and worries of everyday life, the Resurrected Christ lifts our frail humanity to glory in the presence of the Father.

It is my hope and prayer that you, your families and friends will find in the risen Christ a joy that reaches into the depths of your spirit. A joy so firmly rooted that life now lived will have new meaning, like that of the Apostles on the First Easter Day. Life forever changed.

This is the day of joyous change.
This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. A Blessed Easter to you!

Fr. Roncase

ARE YOU CALLED TO BE A DEACON?

Archdiocese of Philadelphia

Minister of the Word

Minister at the Altar

Minister of Charity

While all of the baptized are called to share in the mission of Jesus Christ according to the gifts of the Holy Spirit, those who are ordained also offer service in a way proper to the Sacrament of Holy Orders. A deacon's ministry entails proclaiming, preaching and teaching God's Word, assisting the bishop and priest at the Liturgy, assisting at funerals, ministering to the sick and dying, leading the community in prayer and in sacramental liturgies, baptizing, witnessing marriages, and exercising administrative leadership in the Church. A permanent deacon, who may be married, is a member of the clergy and shares in the hierarchy of the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Through the Sacrament of Holy Orders, the deacon is configured to Christ the Servant. It is Christ the Servant who acts through the ministry of the deacon.

Save the Date! TRADITION CONFERENCE

In 1992, St. John Paul II approved the Catechism of the Catholic Church. To celebrate the 25th Anniversary of its promulgation, the Archdiocese of Philadelphia will sponsor a conference on Monday, June 19th, entitled: Tradition - A Celebration of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. This day features national speakers who will focus on the four pillars of the Catechism and will be held at the Sheraton Philadelphia Downtown Hotel.

All of the faithful are invited to attend. Please note that headsets for translation will be provided for those who wish to listen to the talks in Spanish. Questions? Please contact Ann Menna, Office for Catechetical Formation at: amenna@archphila.org.

SOLEMNITY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD (EASTER SUNDAY)

Your Easter best is good enough

It used to be that on Easter everyone would put on their best clothes, new ones if they could afford them.

It was a sign of new beginnings and a fresh start. No matter what had happened in people's lives, Easter remained a sign of hope. And so it remains, regardless of what you wear. Today we are an Easter people. Jesus has conquered sin and death. The rules are rewritten.

What will you put on to be a new and better person?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 10:34a, 37-43; Colossians 3:1-4 or 1 Corinthians 5:6b-8; Victimae Paschali Laudes; John 20:1-9 or Matthew 28:1-10 (42, 41) or, at an afternoon or evening Mass, Luke 24:13-35 (46). "He saw and believed."

MONDAY, APRIL 17

MONDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

All depends on how you look at it

If you grew up with siblings, chances are you've had the experience of your side of the story being far different from the one your brother or sister told. That's because our perceptions are based on self-interest. The soldiers in Matthew's Resurrection story witnessed the same thing the women did, yet their account was a lot different because the empty tomb meant trouble for them. For the women, on the other hand, the empty tomb awakened hope, and the message of the angel filled them with joy. They had a whole different story to tell, one that we hear being told to this day.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:14, 22-33; Victimae Paschali Laudes (42); Matthew 28:8-15 (261).

"Suddenly, Jesus met them and said, 'Greetings!' "

TUESDAY, APRIL 18

TUESDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Look and you will see

When Mary Magdalene meets Jesus near the tomb, he asks her an important question: "Whom are you looking for?" Not Jesus himself, obviously, because she stood not long ago at the cross where he died. She imagines the man to whom she is speaking is the gardener—who else would be in a cemetery at dawn? Only those who are actually looking for Jesus will be sure to recognize him when they see him, whether in the face of a stranger or a friend. Jesus isn't hiding. He wants to be revealed!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:36-41; Victimae Paschali Laudes (42); John 20:11-18 (262). "Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?'"

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19

WEDNESDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

All fired up

What makes your heart come alive with the true fire of passion? Is it when you hear a story about a noble and courageous act? Or read an article about injustice that makes you burn with indignation? Does the sight of human suffering on a street corner arouse your compassion to the brim? Does the innocence in a child's face melt your heart with love? Our hearts were made for the richness of such passion, and our lives are given to us to experience life to the fullest. Avoid activities that deaden and suppress your passion.

Follow the fire!

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 3:1-10; Victimae Paschali

Laudes (42); Luke 24:13-35 (263).

"Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking?"

THURSDAY, APRIL 20

THURSDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Keep it real

"Flesh and blood" we say, referring to the people we love to whom we're related. "Body and soul" we say to describe the depth of our love, our commitment, our joy. This is the way God reaches out to us, as beloved children: flesh and blood, body and soul—healing a lame man who dances with delight, sending a risen Christ we can see and touch. The love God gives us—and asks in return—isn't the ethereal love of "dreams," wrote Dorothy Day, cofounder of the Catholic Worker movement, but a hands-on and sometimes "dreadful love" that clothes the naked and feeds the starving. The works of mercy show that real love is real concrete. Let's be real.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 3:11-26; Victimae Paschali

Laudes (42); Luke 24:35-48 (264). "A ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have."

FRIDAY, APRIL 21

FRIDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

Get over it

Despite knowing that he had hurt Jesus deeply and forsaken him in his hour of need, Peter does not cower in Jesus' presence. In fact, he is thrilled to hear that the risen Jesus has come to break bread with the disciples. Peter's joy at the coming of the Lord is a signature Christian trait. Peter truly believes he is forgiven and that nothing can keep him from the love of God, so he is not afraid. Yet many of us have not reached that level of faith. We are ashamed of our failings and try to run from God's gaze. It's time to acknowledge your sins and move on. Don't keep Jesus waiting.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 4:1-12; Victimae Paschali

Laudes (42); John 21:1-14 (265).

"Jesus said to them, 'Come, have breakfast.' "

SATURDAY, APRIL 22

SATURDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF EASTER

See the light

The expression "seeing is believing" may come from the most famous doubter of all, the Apostle Thomas, who insisted on touching the wounds of the risen Jesus before he would accept the fact of Christ's Resurrection. Thomas, though, wasn't alone. Others among the first disciples wouldn't at first give credence to the incredible news. Throughout his earthly ministry Christ's main request was to believe in him and his message, and after he was raised that did not—and has not—changed. With an eye toward generations of Christians to come, Jesus told Thomas, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 4:13-21; Victimae Paschali

Laudes (42); Mark 16:9-15 (266). "Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature."
