ARCHDIOCESAN NEWS

Office of the Archbishop

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon our diocese will be taking up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal, and I ask that you prayerfully consider participating. This Appeal supports the dioceses here in our own country that struggle to make ends meet and to serve all of the needs of their parishioners. It is through your generosity that many churches are able to keep their doors open and provide essential pastoral services.

The Diocese of Laredo is located in southern Texas, along the Texas-Mexico border. Many in this diocese live on the margins of society, either as immigrants or as people living in poverty, and it is a challenge for the diocese to keep up with the needs of its people. With your contributions to the Home Missions Appeal, the diocese reaches out to some of the most marginalized people - those in prison. Many detainees are returning to the Catholic Faith and are in need of God's mercy. Your gifts provide liturgical and educational supplies, help priests offer the Eucharist and other sacraments and support volunteers' and ministers' outreach to over 10,000 men and women in Detention Facilities. Your generosity brings Christ's message of love, compassion and reconciliation to this often forgotten population.

Your support of this Appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the US. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the Appeal this year.

Gratefully and with best wishes in Jesus Christ,
Most Rev. Charles J. Chaput, OFM Cap.

Save the Date! TRADITION CONFERENCE

In 1992, St. John Paul II approved the Catechism of the Catholic Church. To celebrate the 25th Anniversary of its promulgation, the Archdiocese of Philadelphia will sponsor a conference on Monday, June 19th, entitled: Tradition - A Celebration of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. This day features national speakers who will focus on the four pillars of the Catechism and will be held at the Sheraton Philadelphia Downtown Hotel. All of the faithful are invited to attend. Please note that headsets for translation will be provided for those who wish to listen to the talks in Spanish. Please contact Ann Menna, Office for Catechetical Formation at: amenna@archphila.org.

SUNDAY, APRIL 30, 2017 THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Reveal yourself

The story of Jesus' death and Resurrection is the defining one of our faith. It is the reason we gather to break bread every week. It's the reason we love our neighbor, feed the poor, work for justice, and struggle to forgive our enemies. Each of us has a defining story as well, an encounter or experience that reveals our highest selves, our deepest compassion or originality, our incomparable imagination or sense of humor. It's the story that demonstrates most clearly and profoundly who we really are. Jesus "made himself known" in the breaking of the bread. How do you make yourself known?

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 2:14, 22-33; 1 Peter 1:17-21; Luke 24:13-35 (46).

"How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke!"

MONDAY, MAY 1

MEMORIAL OF JOSEPH THE WORKER

Let's get to work!

The Feast of Saint Joseph the Worker may have been instituted on May 1 partly for political reasons (to counteract communist influence), but the feast's recognition of the dignity and sanctity of labor has deep roots in Christian tradition. Unfortunately our high-tech culture doesn't honor manual labor as much as it should. E. F. Schumacher, in his book Small Is Beautiful, suggests that a "great part of the modern neurosis may be due to this very fact: for the human being . . . enjoys nothing more than to be creatively, usefully, productively engaged with both his hands and his brains." Today, in honor of Saint Joseph, plant a seed, make dinner from scratch, or fix something that's broken.

TODAY'S READINGS: Genesis 1:26—2:3 or Colossians 3:14-15, 17, 23-24; Matthew 13:54-58 (559) or Acts 6:8-15; John 6:22-29 (273).

"Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures."

TUESDAY, MAY 2

MEMORIAL OF ATHANASIUS, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

One and same

Each Sunday we recite the Nicene Creed, which Saint Athanasius was instrumental in formulating and defending at great risk to his life. When the Nicene Creed was originally drawn up in 325, the chief threat was Arianism, which denied that Jesus was fully God. Arius, a priest of the time, preached that God created the Son, which meant the Son was separate from the Father and not divine. Athanasius offered this argument: Consider the sun and the light streaming from it. Are they not of the same substance and the same essence? The physics might be off, but the theology is sound: Jesus and the Father are one in a way that is as inseparable as light from light.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 7:51—8:1a;

John 6:30-35 (274). "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger."

WEDNESDAY, MAY 3

FEAST OF PHILIP AND JAMES, APOSTLES

Still don't get it?

How would you like it if someone published an account of your on-the-job training? That's what happened to the apostles, whose gospel appearances usually signal someone about to get Jesus' message wrong. Philip is shown as a hopeless literalist who keeps misunderstanding Jesus. He and his fellow apostles provide great inspiration for those of us who feel we're slow to “get it” and not in the same league as the “greats” like Mother Teresa or even the local leading lights in our parish. Jesus showed great patience with the apostles, and he’s pleased to offer the same to you and me.

TODAY’S READINGS: 1 Corinthians 15:1-8;

John 14:6-14 (561). “Whatever you ask in my name, I will do.”

THURSDAY, MAY 4

EASTER WEEKDAY

Say what?

Catechesis is one of the essential ministries of the church. We do it formally, for example, in religious education classes and the Rite of Christian Initiation, and informally through daily interactions with others—our children, neighbors, and coworkers. It can, however, be discouraging work. Fortunately Saint Augustine offers some advice, especially for those times when we are feeling ineffective. First, we are not as terrible as we think we are; second, we should persist; and third, we do the best we can and let God speak through us—because in truth God is doing the teaching. We are merely God’s instrument. What would your day be like if you thought God was trying to speak through you all the time? What would you say? What wouldn’t you say?

TODAY’S READINGS: Acts 8:26-40; John 6:44-51 (276).

“They shall all be taught by God.”

FRIDAY, MAY 5

EASTER WEEKDAY

Speak up for good

Speech is not to be underestimated. It can bring life, and it can bring death. When God speaks, the words result in life: water, animals, human beings, mercy, and compassion! Mary followed in God’s footsteps with a single word—Yes!—that resulted in her bearing the Christ child in the world. On the other hand, some of our words can be death-dealing. Saul, a persecutor of Jesus’ followers before his conversion, “breathed murderous threats” that resulted in much fear, injury, and death.

How will you use the power of speech to nurture life?

TODAY’S READINGS: Acts 9:1-20; John 6:52-59 (277).

“Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?”

SATURDAY, MAY 6

EASTER WEEKDAY

Lend a hand

In many households, parishes, and workplaces, there is one person without whom things simply couldn’t function. Whoever that might be in your environment (maybe it’s you!), being the essential person is an exhausting proposition. In the early church, poor Tabitha was deemed so necessary to her community that the widows of her town couldn’t let her go even after she died—Saint Peter was obliged to bring her back to life! The “indispensables” are useful to have around but they could use our help. Let’s offer our assistance with prayers, resources, and kind words of gratitude.

TODAY’S READINGS: Acts 9:31-42; John 6:60-69 (278).

“She was completely occupied with good deeds and almsgiving.”
