PRO-LIFE ARTICLES

Quotes September 2017

"I do not believe the promises of the Declaration of Independence and reformed the independent, the healthy. They are for everyone--in a society with enough compassion and wealth and love for their children, to seek the promise and potential in every child. We are demonizing the Catholic Church as a specific tactic of the pro-abortion movement. He stated, "We Gov. George W. Bush, in a videotaped address to the National Right to Life Convention (June 1999)

"A truly welcoming society must be a culture of Life ... We must appreciate the dignity of Life in all its seasons ... and look toward the day when every child, born and unborn, is welcome in Life and protected in law."
Gov. George W. Bush

"Some people argue that changing laws will not eliminate abortions. It is certainly true that a change of heart is more important than a change of law. What is forgotten, however, is that the law is the great teacher. Children grow up believing that if a practice is legal, it must be moral."

Cardinal John O'Connor

"More than four thousand innocent lives are taken each day in this land of the free and home of the brave, whose lady holds high the torch of welcome to human life."

John Powell, Abortion: the Silent Holocaust

Anti-Catholicism and Abortion

You do not have to be Catholic (or even religious) to know that medical and scientific evidence confirms that what grows in a mother's womb is a new, distinct human being. Moreover, everyone can understand that each human being---without discrimination---merits dignity and respect. At the very least, respecting human life must exclude the deliberate and direct destruction of life---- and that is exactly what abortion is.

However, the fact is that no institution has stood up against the abortion industry more than the Catholic Church. The Church has consistently and will continue to teach that abortion is evil, whether its words are popular or unpopular, politically correct or incorrect, because the "values" of different cultures may change from time to time, but the truth does not change.

Pro-abortionists disparage Catholicism because it is the bulwark against abortion, just as the communists vilified Catholicism because it was a bulwark against communism.

Bernard Nathanson, a restored and reformed abortionist, admitted that the Catholic Church was a specific tactic of the pro-abortion movement. He stated, "We systematically vilified the Catholic Church and its 'socially backward ideas'.....We fed the media such lies as 'we all know that opposition to abortion comes from the hierarchy and not from most Catholics'.....and that Catholics in favor of abortion are enlightened and forward looking".

What is even more disturbing about Nathanson's statement is that the pro-abortion propaganda fed to the mainstream media is uncritically accepted by it.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Pearls come with a price

Pearls are unlike other precious materials: Metals and gems are formed in the earth; pearls come from a living creature. Also, pearls do not need to be cut or polished—they're beautiful just the way they are. The actual science of how they are formed is profound: Pearls begin as an irritant inside the heart of the oyster, which secretes layer upon layer until the source is encased in lustrous coatings. What a perfect Christian metaphor for the redemptive value of suffering—that trials leave one with treasure.

TODAY'S READINGS: 1 Kings 4:5, 7-12; Romans 8:28-30; Matthew 13:44-52 (109).
“The kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls.”

Monday, Jul 31, 2017

MEMORIAL OF IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA, PRIEST

The order of the day

Before he came on the world stage as Pope Francis, Jorge Mario Bergoglio had already put in 53 years of service to the church as a Jesuit. The Society of Jesus founded by Saint Ignatius of Loyola has served the church for nearly 500 years, with Jesuits currently working in 112 nations in a variety of apostolic ministries. The election of Bergoglio to the papacy allows for greater visibility for all religious orders.

Give thanks for all the women and men in consecrated religious life who have dedicated their lives to the People of God.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 32:15-24, 30-34; Matthew 13:31-35 (401). “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast.”

Tuesday, Aug 01, 2017

MEMORIAL OF ALPHONSUS LIGUORI, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

A whole lot of love

Saint Alphonsus (1696-1787) practiced law for a time, became a priest, and eventually founded the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (the Redemptorists). His clear and reasoned thinking—a remnant from his days as a litigator—served him well as a moral theologian. His persuasive and hope-filled preaching drew many to the church. “Has not God in fact won for himself a claim on all our love?” argued Alphonsus. “From all eternity he has loved us.” Remember to love God back just as much.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 33:7-11; 34:5b-9, 28; Matthew 13:36-43 (402).
“Merciful and gracious is the Lord, slow to anger and abounding in kindness.”

MEMORIAL OF EUSEBIUS OF VERCELLI, BISHOP

Don't sweat the small stuff

Saint Eusebius of Vercelli (d. 371) lived at a time when bishops were elected by acclamation of the people. The people of Vercelli, in modern-day Italy, chose Eusebius because of his humility and his commitment to unity at a time of great division in the early church. Eusebius emphasized the faith that unites us rather than the opinions that divide us. When you find yourself in a disagreement with someone, ask if you are clashing over fundamental truths or merely over personal opinions and preferences. If we pray for humility, we will be able to find a way to reconcile our differences.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 34:29-35; Matthew 13:44-46 (403). "When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it."

Travel light

Most tabernacles these days are pretty fancy places, far removed in size and style from the original dwelling place of God, which was a tent in the desert. Moses built it, but the master architect was God, who delivered the blueprint on Mt. Sinai. It served as the dwelling place of the Most High, but it had to be lightweight and portable if it were going to accompany the Israelites on their wanderings in the wilderness during the Exodus. It does us well to remember that God does not need a fancy house to feel at home and travel among us. We are a pilgrim people, and it is good to stay in touch with our roots.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 40:16-21, 34-38; Matthew 13:47-53 (404). "Moses . . . . spread the tent over the Dwelling . . . . and the glory of the Lord filled the Dwelling."

MEMORIAL OF JOHN VIANNEY, PRIEST

Hang in there

Saint John Vianney (1786-1859), known as the Curé of Ars, started out as a farmhand and catechist who needed extra time in his studies for the priesthood because he wasn't the most brilliant student. He was not at first authorized to hear Confessions, but later he would spend 10 to 16 hours a day hearing the Confessions of the 100,000 people a year who trooped to visit him. Sometimes it's necessary to struggle, even fail, before you find your true calling. When you get to the place where your gifts match what's needed, though, you'll know. There, in the words of author Frederick Buechner, "your deep gladness and the world's deep hunger meet."

TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 23:1, 4-11, 15-16, 27, 34b-37; Matthew 13:54-58 (405). "A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and in his own house."

MEMORIAL OF THE DEDICATION OF THE BASILICA OF MARY MAJOR

Uncover the truths hidden in sacred places

Exploring architecture is a great way to grow in your understanding of Catholicism. Not only are there different styles of Catholic church buildings but there are also different classifications. The type of structure you may know best is the parish church, but there are also oratories, crypts, cathedrals, and basilicas. Each has its own particular characteristics. A basilica, for example, signifies a church that has a place of honor because of its historical and religious importance. Look up a church like the Basilica of Mary Major and see what light it can shed on your Catholic faith.

TODAY'S READINGS: Leviticus 25:1, 8-17; Matthew 14:1-12 (406). "It shall be a jubilee for you."
